

July 6/11

Press release:

Ideal weather conditions in the Annapolis Basin made for exciting and tight competition for the second annual Capt. Joshua Slocum Cup race presented by the Royal Western Nova Scotia Yacht Club on July 2/11 as a benefit for the Mount Hanley Schoolhouse Museum.

The sloop “Slam” skippered by Keith Amirault of Digby place first, followed by “Sagres” of Port George, and “Sundance” of Bear River.

Cruisers and power boats also enjoyed the sunny day. Ron Milne of Cornwallis was awarded a Joshua Slocum signature knife made by Grohmann Ltd. of Nova Scotia in appreciation of his voluntary work.
